The National Constable's Association (NCA) at its March 2011 Annual Training-Conference and Convention voted unanimously to amend its name change to National Constables Marshals Association.

This moved provides opportunity to encourage more participation by Marshals (U.S. and Local) who basically provide similar services in the court systems through judicial process.

The city/municipal courts, state courts and federal courts utilize the professionally trained law enforcement services for court security, transporting prisoners, warrants execution for arrest, seizures, sales, garnishments, eviction and many other court ordered functions.

Training and education is essential and through the combined efforts the NCMA will be a vital link to improvement across the spectrum.

Please feel free to contact us at any time.
